Hi Jack and Nancy

How are you? Liz and I are on holiday in Canada! We're in a small house in the woods (see photo!) about 20 km from town. It's my cousin Karl's house, but he's in Toronto with his wife and their three children, so only Liz and I are here at the moment. The house isn't very big – it's only got three rooms – but it's very nice. It's beautiful here and it's very quiet. We haven't got a TV or a DVD player, but we've got a lot of books! And we haven't got a computer, but we can send emails from our mobile. Where are you? Are you at home? Please send us an email!

Things to do in the UK: Shopping

Bluewater, 5 miles from the town of Gravesend in England, is one of the biggest shopping centres in Europe.

There are over 330 shops, with over 100 clothes shops and three department stores. There are also over 50 cafés and restaurants with food from all over the world – American burgers, Italian pasta, South African chicken and, of course, traditional English fish and chips. Or for a special meal, there are also some excellent French, Spanish and Chinese restaurants with five-star food and service.

But Bluewater isn't only about shopping. It's in the middle of a beautiful park, with six lakes for boating and fishing. There's also a 13-screen cinema, a health club, a golf course, and lots of places for children to play. And when you're tired, there's a 'Place of Quiet' where you can go and relax.

Bluewater is only half an hour from the centre of London by train. There is also free parking for 13,000 cars. It is open every day, from 10 a.m. – 9 p.m. from Monday to Friday, 9 a.m. – 9 p.m. on Saturdays and 11 a.m. – 5 p.m. on Sundays.

Hi Andy

Guess what? I'm in Cape Town! I arrived here ten days ago. At the moment I¹ am staying in a very nice hotel in the centre of the city and I² go sightseeing every day. On my first day here I³ took a guided tour of the city, then I climbed up Table Mountain with two people from the hotel. It was a beautiful evening and we⁴ had a picnic on the top. And two days ago I⁵ took a boat trip to Robben Island to see Mandela's cell – you were right, it was really interesting. Yesterday morning I⁶ visited a museum in the centre of Cape Town and then I⁷ went to the beach in the afternoon. Did you know you can⁸ go diving near Cape Town? When I'm travelling in the city I always⁹ use public transport, but last week I¹⁰ rented a car and drove to a wildlife park about 100 km from Cape Town. One evening we all¹¹ went camping in the bush and some elephants came into our camp in the middle of the night – it was very exciting!! See you when I get home. Then you can tell me where I can¹² go holiday next year!

Lots of love Jessica

- 3 ☐ Georgina doesn't like studying Spanish.

- 5 ☐ They don't want to live in England again.
- 6 ☐ Neil wrote a book about their experiences.

b Read the article again. Choose the correct verb forms 1–17.

Home from home!

Every year thousands of British people sell their homes and move to a place in the sun. But is the grass really greener if you move abroad? We ask two couples how they feel about living in a different country.

Georgina Wilkes

We decided ¹*to come* / coming to Spain two years ago, after my husband, Don, stopped ²*working* / to work. We live in a place called Nerja, on the Mediterranean coast. We chose Spain because we hated ³*being* / to be in England in the winter and we wanted ⁴*living* / to live somewhere warm.

We really love ⁵*living* / to live here – the weather is wonderful and the local people are really friendly. Some British people here think they don't need ⁶*learning* / to learn Spanish, but I think that's wrong. When you're living in another country, it's important to learn the language. I really enjoy ⁷*studying* / to study Spanish and I'd like ⁸*becoming* / to become fluent. Then I'd really feel part of Spain.

Neil Garner

My wife, Violet, and I decided ⁹*moving* / to move to France about six years ago, and we live in a small village near Bordeaux. When we arrived we were the only British people in the village, so we needed ¹⁰*learning* / to learn French very quickly! At first Violet didn't like ¹¹*living* / to live here, but now we're part of the village and we don't want ¹²*going* / to go back to England. It's so quiet and peaceful here.

I enjoy ¹³*writing* / to write and I'd love ¹⁴*writing* / to write a book about life in the village. We love ¹⁵*having* / to have people to stay and they all say they'd love ¹⁶*living* / to live here too. We'd like ¹⁷*staying* / to stay here for the rest of our lives.

- 1 Read about how Rita and Keith stay fit and healthy. Choose the correct verbs.

RITA I read an article in the paper about ¹getting/taking fit for free, and I think it's a very good idea. Now when I'm in town I don't ²do/take escalators, I walk up the stairs instead. I also ³get/do the housework more quickly than before, which uses extra calories, and I ⁴wash/take the windows every week. And I go to local shops, not the supermarket, and ⁵spend/carry the shopping home. And I usually ⁶have/do a shower not a bath, because that uses more calories too. I also ⁷get on/spend a lot of time with my grandson – that uses hundreds of calories!

KEITH I'm a lawyer for a big American company and I always ⁸have/get very stressed at work. In the past I ⁹spent/did a lot of money on gym membership, but I never had time to go. Now I want to ¹⁰get/have fit in my day-to-day life. Every morning I ¹¹get on/get off the bus two stops earlier and then walk to the office. And when I get there I don't ¹²take/carry the lift, I walk up the stairs instead. I don't drive to the carwash any more, I ¹³spend/wash the car myself. And I always ¹⁴do/spend some exercise at the weekend, either swimming or running. Now I'm a lot fitter than when I ¹⁵spent/got hundreds of pounds a year on the gym!

2 Read about Manchester and Chicago. Choose the correct words 1–10.

Manchester, in the north of England, is famous for its dialy life, fish and chips, its two football clubs – and, of course, ¹raining/rain. But does it really ²rain/raining more in Manchester than in other British cities? Yes, it does, but in the spring and the summer it's often very ³sun/sunny, and sometimes there isn't a ⁴cloud/cloudy in the sky. And in the winter it doesn't always ⁵raining/rain – sometimes it ⁶snows/snowing instead!

Chicago, in the USA, is often called 'the ⁷wind/windy city'. In the winter the ⁸wind/windy is very cold and temperatures in the city are often below zero. There's also lots of ⁹snow/snowing in January and February and it's sometimes very ¹⁰fog/foggy too. But in the summer it's very hot and the temperature can be 30°C or higher. This is a very good time to enjoy jazz music in the city's parks and clubs, and also to visit its famous museums.

3 a Read about the two cities again. Are these sentences true (T) or false (F)?

- 1 ☒ T Manchester is famous for football.
- 2 ☐ It rains more in Manchester than in other cities in the UK.
- 3 ☐ It never snows in winter.
- 4 ☐ It usually snows at the beginning of the year in Chicago.
- 5 ☐ It isn't very hot in summer.

A night to remember

Reading a student's composition
Writing paragraphs (1); connecting words (2): after, when, and then; a composition
Review Past Simple; adjectives

- 1 Read about Miyu's evening out. Then put the pictures in order.

The day I met Keira ...

- 1 A few years ago I went to the UK with two friends to study at a language school in London. The day after I arrived was a very special day for me because it was my 21st birthday. After our classes finished we went for coffee in Leicester Square.
- 2 Then we went to the theatre to see a play called The Children's Hour. I wanted to see it because my favourite actress, Keira Knightley, was in it. We sat in a box and had a very good view. The play was really good and Keira Knightley was wonderful.
- 3 When the play ended we went for a meal in a Japanese restaurant near the theatre. It was quite crowded, but the food was great. We had sushi and salad – it was very nice. After the meal my friends gave me presents and then the whole restaurant sang Happy Birthday!
- 4 After we left the restaurant we walked past the theatre again – and there was Keira Knightley! I went over and said hello and she was really friendly to me. We talked for about five minutes and then my friends took some photos of me and Keira together.
- 5 When I got home I emailed all my friends in Japan and told them about my birthday. I also sent them the photos of me and Keira! It really was a night to remember.

- 2 Read the text again. Tick the true sentences. Correct the false sentences.

A Wales is part of the United Kingdom and it's famous for its beautiful scenery, music festivals and friendly people. It has its own language, Welsh, but nearly everyone speaks English. Wales is also famous for its long place names – like Llanfairpwllgwyngyllgogerychwyrndrobwllllantysiliogogoch! The best time to visit is from June to September.

Places to visit and things to do

B Cardiff is the capital city of Wales. It's a busy, modern city on a river called the Taff. There's a beautiful castle in the centre of the city and some interesting museums. St David's Hall is a good place for traditional Welsh music. You can also go to concerts and sports events at the amazing Millennium Stadium.

C Brecon Beacons National Park is a great place for walks and picnics. You can walk along Offa's Dyke in the Black Mountains and enjoy the wonderful views, or go fishing at Llangorse Lake, the largest natural lake in south Wales.

D Snowdonia National Park is in the north of the country. Every year about 500,000 people climb Snowdon, the highest mountain in Wales. You can also travel up the mountain by train!

E Llandudno is an old seaside town on the north coast. It's famous for its long beaches and beautiful scenery, and it's a good place to go surfing. You can also go surfing at many places in the south of the country, like Broadhaven and Tenby.

3	it	its
4	us	10

b Look at these sentences. Then complete these rules with before and after.

I broke my leg four months ago.

She saw them in a restaurant.

- Subject pronouns come _____ verbs.
- Object pronouns come _____ verbs.
- Possessive adjectives come _____ nouns.

TIP • Notice the difference between it's and its.

It's OK now. (it's = it is)

What's its name? (its = possessive adjective)

Ask Angela

If you've got problems, Angela Armstrong is here to help.

A Four months ago I was in a car accident and I broke my leg very badly. It's OK now, but I'm quite overweight at the moment because I spent four months just sitting at home. My wife says I should lose about ten kilos and I agree with her. Last weekend we went cycling with our friends, but they were all faster than me and I lost them! And I really hate doing sport – it's really boring! I want to lose weight without doing any exercise. Can you give me some advice?

Jasper, Northampton

B ¹I've got a big problem with ²my sister, Samantha. Last night I saw ³her fiancé, Adam, in a restaurant with another woman. Her name is Jodie and ⁴she works in ⁵his office. ⁶They both looked very happy and ⁷he left the restaurant with her, arm in arm. I didn't call my sister because I didn't want to hurt ⁸her. Now I don't know what to do. Should I tell her I saw ⁹them together, or should I talk to Adam first? What do ¹⁰you think I should do?

Olivia, Brighton

C I'm married and we've got a new baby, Maria. She's our first child and she's only two months old. The problem is that my husband, Rick, never helps me with our daughter. He works very hard, I know, but when he gets home from work he just watches TV and waits for his dinner. When I ask him to put Maria to bed, he always says that he's too tired. But he goes out with his friends every Saturday night – he's never too tired for them! Can you help me?

Yvonne, Manchester

Have you got a problem?

Email me at askangela@mylife.co.uk

- 5 Read letter C again. Then read Angela's answer to Yvonne. Choose the correct words.

Dear Yvonne

Life is often difficult for married couples when ¹they/them have ²them/their first child. Why don't ³you/your talk to ⁴you/your husband and tell ⁵his/him how ⁶you/your feel? You say that ⁷he/him works hard, but Maria's ⁸him/his baby too. ⁹You/Your daughter needs to spend time with ¹⁰she/her father – it's important for babies to have both parents in ¹¹their/them lives. Tonight why don't you both put Maria to bed? You also say Rick goes out with ¹²him/his friends every Saturday – maybe you can go out with ¹³you/your friends on Fridays and ¹⁴he/his can be with ¹⁵him/his daughter.

Angela

- 4 Read Angela's answer to Olivia. Change the words in bold to the correct pronoun or possessive adjective.

Dear Olivia

I think you should ask Adam why ¹he Adam was in the restaurant with Jodie. You said ²the restaurant was near ³Jodie and Adam's office, so maybe ⁴Jodie wanted to talk to ⁵Adam about work. Maybe it was ⁶Jodie's birthday – or ⁷Jodie and Adam might just be friends. Just because you saw ⁸Jodie and Adam together, it doesn't mean ⁹Adam is going out with ¹⁰Jodie. Why don't you talk to Adam and get ¹¹Adam's side of the story before you talk to your sister? Then you can help ¹²Samantha if there's something wrong in ¹³Samantha's relationship with Adam.

| 2 Brighton Pier <input type="checkbox"/> | 4 The Royal Pavilion <input type="checkbox"/> | 6 North Laine <input type="checkbox"/> |

Things to do in Brighton

The Seafront

The best way to get to know Brighton is to walk along the Esplanade on the seafront. Here you'll see some of the town's most beautiful old buildings. Many of the town's most important tourist attractions* are also close to the seafront, in the area opposite Brighton Pier.

The Piers

Brighton has two piers, West Pier and Brighton Pier. Unfortunately you can't visit West Pier because parts of it fell into the sea in 1987 and in 2003. Brighton Pier is over 100 years old and is very popular with tourists. It's open 364 days a year, from 10 a.m. to midnight. Admission* is free.

The Royal Pavilion

The Royal Pavilion, on Pavilion Parade, is probably the most famous building in Brighton and it was one of King George IV's* palaces in the 19th century. It is open from 9.30 a.m. to 5.45 p.m. April to September and from 10 a.m. to 5.15 p.m. for the rest of the year. Admission is £9.80 for adults and £5.60 for children, or you can buy a family ticket for two adults and two children for £25.20.

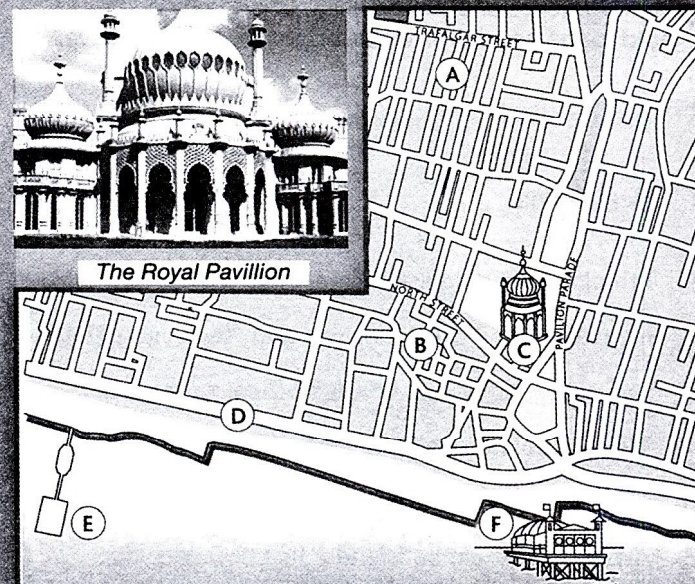

*tourist attractions = places people want to visit when they are on holiday

*admission = the price to visit this place

*King George IV = King of Great Britain 1820–1830

The Lanes and North Laine

The small area between North Street and the Esplanade is called The Lanes. This is the best place to go shopping for clothes, or you can just relax in a café and watch the world go by. North Laine, between North Street and Trafalgar Street, is another popular shopping area and prices there are usually cheaper than in The Lanes.

- b Read the information again. Answer these questions.

- 1 What's the best thing to do when you arrive in Brighton?

Walk along the Esplanade.

- 2 Which pier can you visit?

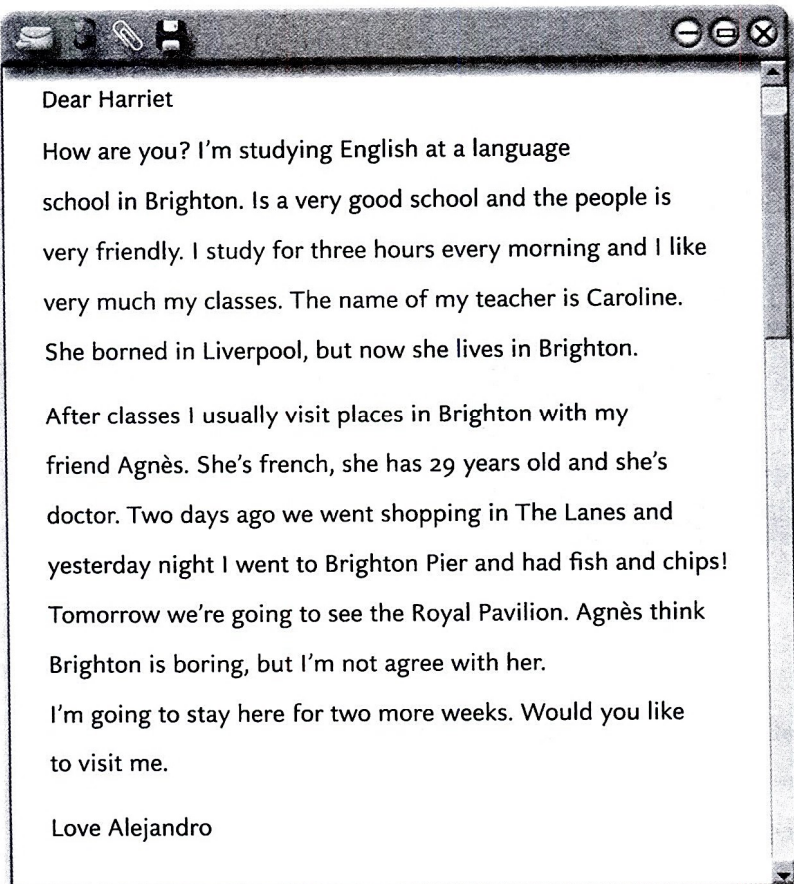

- 3 Do you pay to visit Brighton Pier?

- 4 Can you visit the Royal Pavilion in December?

- 5 A mother, father and three children want to visit the Royal Pavilion. How much do they pay?

- 6 Which place is more expensive to go shopping, The Lanes or North Laine?

- 2 Read Alejandro's email and tick the places that he went to on the map.

CAMBRIDGE ENGLISH CORPUS

The Cambridge English Corpus is a multi-billion word collection of written and spoken English. It includes the Cambridge Learner Corpus, a unique bank of exam candidate papers.

Our authors study the Corpus to see how English is really used, and to identify typical learner mistakes. This means that Cambridge materials help students to avoid mistakes, and you can be confident the language taught is useful, natural and fully up-to-date.
