Musical instruments from around the world

1 Read about these musical instruments.

This is a Celtic harp. It's from Ireland. It has thirty-six metal strings. Some harps also have pedals – you can press the pedals with your feet. The Celtic harp is a beautiful instrument, but it's big and very heavy!

Are these drums? No, they're not!
They are steel pans. They're from the Caribbean. You can hit them in different places, and you can play a tune on them.
A 'steel band' is a group of steel pan players. At big parties in the Caribbean there's always a steel band!

This is a didgeridoo. It's from Australia. It's long and heavy. You can blow it, and you can hit it at the same time. People can make didgeridoos from old trees.

GET TOCETHER

The tried-and-trusted American English course for young people – now in a NEW EDITION.

A clear, step-by-step approach gives students a thorough grasp of grammar.

See Unit 5 page 21 for a clear presentation of possessive adjectives.

Rewind and Plus Exercises ensure students are confident about what they've learned before moving on.

See page 19 for a review of Units 3 and 4.

Cross-curricular Transfer pages give students the chance to read about real-world subjects and motivate them to create their own projects.

See page 101 for an exciting project about the natural world.

NEW! Eye-catching Read More section with texts which your students will want to read – extra practice to improve their reading skills.

See page 93 for a profile of a pop singer.

The Teacher's Book contains a wide selection of games and activities to provide extra practice for students of all abilities.

Photocopiable tests in the Teacher's Book mean your students can see the progress they're making.

Get Together is a four-level course. Each level consists of a Student Book, Workbook, Teacher's Book and Class Audio CD.
