Introduction

New Round-Up 1 English Grammar Practice combines games and fun with serious, systematic grammar practice. It is ideal for young learners in the preliminary stages of English language learning.

Students see grammar points clearly presented in colourful boxes and tables. They practise grammar through lively, highly illustrated games and oral and writing activities.

New Round-Up is especially designed for different students studying English in different ways.

It can be used:

- in class with a coursebook. Students do both oral work in pairs and in groups and written work in New Round-Up.
- after class. The 'write-in' activities are ideal for homework. Students can practise what they have learned in the classroom.
- on holidays for revision. New Round-Up has clear instructions and simple grammar boxes, so students can study at home without a teacher.

The New Round-Up Teacher's Guide includes a full answer key, quizzes, tests plus answer keys, and audio scripts of progress check listening tasks.

Adverbs of Frequency

- Adverbs of frequency tell us how often something happens.
- Adverbs of frequency (always, usually, often, sometimes, seldom/rarely, never, etc.) come before the main verb (read, work, etc.) but after the verb to be, auxiliary verbs (do, have, etc.) or modal verbs (can, should, etc.). However, adverbs of frequency go before auxiliary verbs in short answers.

Tina often goes skiing at the weekend. Ben is sometimes rude to other people. You can always call me if you need help. "Do you help your mum with the housework?"
"Yes, I usually do."

 The adverbs never, seldom and rarely have a negative meaning and are never used with the word not. I rarely go to bed late. (NOT: I rarely don't go ...)

Read about Layla's daily routine and make sentences as in the example. Use adverbs of frequency (always, often, sometimes, rarely, never).

Layla's Daily Routine

- go to school by bike Monday to Thursday, walk to school on Friday
- · wear casual clothes at school

4	you / often / hang out with your friends?
5	your dad / usually / wash the dishes?

Stative Verbs

Verbs describing a permanent state (stative verbs) do not normally have continuous forms. These are:

- verbs of the senses: see, hear, smell, feel, taste, etc. (We often use can or could with these verbs.) Can you see that tall boy over there?
 - However, the verbs look, watch and listen express deliberate actions and can be used in continuous forms. Be quiet please! I'm listening to the news. BUT I can't hear you. Can you speak louder, please?

Note: The verbs feel and hurt can be used in either continuous or simple forms.

- A: How are you feeling today? | How do you feel today?
- B: My leg is hurting. / My leg hurts.
- verbs of opinion: agree, believe, consider, etc. I believe he's telling the truth.
- verbs of emotion: feel, forgive, hate, like, love, etc. Harry likes rock music.
- other verbs: appear (= seem), be, belong, fit (= be the right shape and size for sth), have (= possess), know, look (= appear), need, prefer, require, want, weigh, wish, etc. He knows where Peter is. (NOT: is knowing)

Some stative verbs (see, smell, taste, feel, think, have, etc.) have continuous forms but there is a difference in meaning.

Present Continuous	(to) be offering	-	_	-
Perfect	(to) have offered	(to) have been offered	having offered	having been offered
Perfect Continuous	(to) have been offering	77	-	-

The present infinitive refers to the present or future. I'd like to go for a walk.

The present continuous infinitive is used with appear, claim, seem, pretend, must, can't, happen, should, would, etc. to describe an action happening now. He must be working in the garden now.

The perfect infinitive is used with appear, happen, pretend, seem, believe, claim and the modal verbs to show that the action of the infinitive happened before the action of the verb. He claims to have met the Queen. (First he met the Queen, then he claimed he had met her.)

The perfect continuous infinitive is used with appear, seem, pretend, etc. and the modal verbs to put emphasis on the duration of the action of the infinitive, which happened before the action of the verb. She looks tired. She seems to have been working all morning.

The simple -ing form refers to the present or future. She enjoys dancing.

The perfect -ing form shows that the action of the -ing form has happened before the action of the verb. We can use the simple -ing form instead of the perfect -ing form without a difference

He denied having stolen the money. or He denied stealing the money.

Subject of the infinitive / -ing form

The subject of the infinitive or of the -ing form is omitted when it is the same as the subject of the verb. They want to buy a new house. She left without saying goodbye.

When the subject of the infinitive or of the -ing form is different from the subject of the verb, then an object pronoun (me, you, him, her, us, you, them), a name or a noun is placed before the infinitive or the -ing form. The subject of the gerund can also be a possessive adjective (my, your, etc.), an object pronoun, a possessive case or a name.

I want him to leave now. (= He should leave.) BUT I want to leave now. (= I should leave.) I remember his / him / Tom's / Tom complaining about the poor service in this hotel.

The modal verbs are: can, could, may, might, must, ought to, will, would, shall, should, have to, need. They take no -s in the third person singular except for have to and need. They come before the subject in questions and are followed by 'not' in negations. Except for ought to and have to, modal verbs are followed by an infinitive without to. Sorry, I can't come. I have to meet Pam.

Modal verbs are used to express: ability, possibility, probability, logical assumptions, permission, requests, offers, suggestions, advice, criticism, obligation, prohibition or necessity.

Ability

Can / Be able to (ability in the present/future) 'Can' is more usual and less formal than 'be able to' when talking about the present or future.

Ann can type fast. I can pay you next week. (usual) I will be able to pay you next week. (less usual)

Was able to (= managed to do) (ability in the past) is used for either repeated or single actions.

I was able to go on a trip round the city last week. (single action)

Could (ability in the past) 'Could' is more usual than 'was able to.' It is used in statements for repeated actions. However, with the verbs see, hear, smell, understand, etc. we normally use 'could' for single actions. She could / was able to play the violin when she was six. (repeated action) I could smell something burning. (single action) (NOT: I was able to smell ...)

Could / Was able to can both be used in negations and questions for either repeated or single actions.

She couldn't / wasn't able to pass her driving test. (past single action)
Were you able to / Could you get to work every day last week? (past repeated action)

Can is used in the present. Could is the past tense of can. We use be able to to form all the other tenses. I will be able to get a job when I finish school.

 The object of the active verb becomes the subject in the new sentence. The active verb changes into a

	Subject	Verb	Object	Agent
active	Bell	invented	the telephone.
passive	The telephone	was invented		by Bell.

passive form and the subject of the active verb becomes the agent. The agent (= person who does the action) is introduced with 'by' or is omitted.

We use by + agent to say who or what did the action. We use with + instrument, material or ingredient to say what instrument or material the agent used.

A kite was made by Tim. (Tim did the action.)

Mr Smith was hit by Billy with a ball. (The ball is the instrument the agent used.)

The cake was made with flour, sugar and eggs. (Flour, sugar and eggs are the ingredients the agent used.)

We put the agent (= person who performs the action) into the passive when it is a specific or an important person or when it is essential to the meaning of the sentence. When the agent is unknown, unimportant or obvious from the context, it is omitted. Agents such as someone, people, I, you, etc. are omitted.

Macbeth was written by Shakespeare. (The agent is not omitted; it is essential to the meaning of the sentence.)

Somebody took my pen. → My pen was taken (by somebody). (unknown agent; it is omitted.)

 After modal verbs (will, can, may, etc.) we use be + past participle or have been + past participle.

They may close down the theatre. → The theatre may be closed down.

They may have reported the bank robbery. → The bank robbery may have been reported.

 With verbs that take two objects it is more usual to begin the passive sentence with the person.

They sent a letter to him. → He was sent a letter. (more usual) / A letter was sent to him. (less usual)

- Make, hear, see, help, are followed by a to infinitive in the passive.
 They made me apologise. → I was made to apologise.

Reporting a dialogue or conversation

In conversations we use a mixture of statements, commands and questions. When we turn them into reported speech we use and, as, adding that, and he/she added that, explaining that, because, but, since, and then he/she went on to say, while then, etc. or the introductory verb in present participle form (offering, begging, reminding, etc.). Words or expressions such as Oh, Oh dear, Well, etc. are omitted in reported speech.

Direct speech	Reported speech

- The adjectives afraid, alone, alive, awake, asleep, glad, etc. are never followed by a noun.
 The baby was asleep. (NOT: an asleep baby)
- Nouns can be used as adjectives if they go before another noun. They have no plural form in this case. Could you repair the garden gate? a two-week holiday (NOT: a two-weeks holiday)
- Certain adjectives can be used as plural nouns referring to a group of people in general. These are: the poor, the rich, the blind, the young, the old, the disabled, the homeless, the hungry, the strong, the deaf, the living, the dead, the sick, the elderly, etc. The government must provide more homes for the homeless. (homeless people in general). When we want to refer to a specific person / group, then we add the word 'people' or 'man / woman'. The homeless people in our city grow in number.
- Opinion adjectives (wonderful, awful, etc.) go before fact adjectives (large, old, etc.).
 She lives in a lovely big flat. She bought a beautiful leather bag.
- When there are two or more fact adjectives, they normally go in the following order:

		Fact Adjectives
	opinion	size	age	shape	colour	origin	material	used for / be about	noun

Order of Adverbs

Adverbs can go at the front, mid or end, position in a sentence. Front position is at the beginning of the sentence. Mid position is before the main verb or after the auxiliary.
End position is at the end of the sentence.

Front Mid End
Finally, he will probably start working here next week.

- Adverbs of frequency (often, usually, never, ever, regularly, seldom, etc.) normally go before main verbs but after auxiliary verbs (mid position). However, in short answers they go before the auxiliary verb. He often brings me flowers. He is always coming late. "He is always telling jokes, isn't he?" "Yes, he always is."
 - Frequency adverbs can also go at the beginning or the end of the sentence for reasons of emphasis. Sometimes I get up late. I go to that park occasionally.
- Adverbs of time usually go at the end of the sentence (She left Madrid yesterday.) or at the beginning of the sentence if we want to put emphasis on the time (Yesterday, she left Madrid.).
- The adverbs: already, no longer, normally, hardly, nearly, almost usually go in mid position. He nearly missed the train. They are no longer working here. There's hardly any cake left.
- Sentence adverbs (probably, certainly, possibly, clearly, fortunately, etc.) go in any position, front, mid or end; the front position is the most usual though. Probably he believed you. He probably believed you. He believed you probably. In negations certainly, possibly, and probably go before the auxiliary. He probably didn't believe you.
- Adverbs of degree (absolutely, just, totally, completely, very, a lot, really, terribly, much, quite, enough, too, etc.) can go before the adjective or the adverb they modify. She's quite good at Maths. Most of these adverbs can also go before a main verb of after an auxiliary verb. I rather like this film. I can't quite understand it.
- Adverbs of manner (beautifully, badly, eagerly, etc.) and place (here, there, etc.) go after the verb or the object of the verb if there is one (end position). She looked at me angrily. Adverbs of manner can also go in mid position. She looked angrily at me. When there is more than one adverb in a sentence, their order is manner place time. However when there is a verb of movement (go, run, leave, etc.) the place adverb goes next to the verb of movement.

 umbrella, it's in the car.) My aunt took me out to dinner. (NOT: My aunt she took me out to dinner.)

 as objects. He gave her an expensive diamond ring but she didn't like it.
- There + be is used for something mentioned for the first time or to say that something or someone exists. We then use it (+ be) to give more details about something or someone already talked about. There is a shop on the corner. It is open all day.

Possessive adjectives / pronouns - Possessive case

- Possessive adjectives / pronouns express possession. Possessive adjectives go before nouns whereas possessive pronouns do not go before nouns. This is her jacket. It's hers.
 Sometimes possessive pronouns go at the beginning of a sentence. Yours is in the bedroom.
- We often use the rather than a possessive adjective with this pattern: Verb + person + preposition She kissed the baby on the cheek. (because the person whose cheek it is has been mentioned.)
- Own is used with possessive adjectives to emphasise the fact that something belongs to someone and no one else. We've got our own car. or We've got a car of our own.

Reflexive / Emphatic Pronouns

- Reflexive pronouns are used after certain verbs (behave, burn, cut, enjoy, hurt, look, laugh at, introduce, dry, teach, etc.) when the subject and the object of the verb are the same.
 Did you hurt yourself? They look after themselves. They are also used with the preposition by when we mean alone / on sb's own. He likes travelling by himself / on his own.
- Reflexive pronouns can be used after be, feel, look, seem to describe emotions or states. She doesn't look herself these days. They are also used after prepositions but not after prepositions of place. You should take care of yourself. BUT He is sitting in front of me. (NOT: in front of myself)
- Certain verbs do not normally take a reflexive pronoun. These are: wash, shave, dress, afford, complain, meet, rest, relax, stand up, get up, sit down, wake up, etc. She washed and (got) dressed. We don't say: She washed herself and dressed herself. However, we can use a reflexive pronoun with wash or dress when we talk about young children or animals. Although Eliza is only 3 years old, she can dress herself. That elephant is washing itself!
- Emphatic pronouns have the same form as reflexive pronouns but a different meaning. They emphasise the noun or the fact that one person and not another performs an action. I myself organised the party. or I organised the party myself. They also mean without help. He painted the house himself. (without help) They go after nouns, pronouns, at the end of a sentence or after but and than. You should count on no one but yourself.

Note these expressions: Enjoy yourself! (= Have a good time!), Behave yourself! (= Be good!), I like being by myself. (= I like being alone.), She lives by herself. (= She lives on her own.), Help yourself to some cake. (= You're welcome to take some cake if you want some.), Do it yourself. (= Do it without being helped.), Make yourself at home! (= Feel comfortable!), Make yourself heard. (= Speak loudly enough to be heard by others.)

Each other means one another. Study the following examples:
 They're laughing at each other.
 They're laughing at themselves.

Yes / No Questions

10 (where/you stay while in Madrid?)

To form questions we put the auxiliary or modal verb (can, be, will, have, etc.) before the subject. We use do/does to form questions in present simple and did to form questions in past simple. He is ready. → Is he ready?

She likes reading. → Does she like reading?

(NOT: Does she likes reading?)

Ann went out yesterday. → Did Ann go out

Ann went out yesterday. → Did Ann go out yesterday? (NOT: Did Ann went out yesterday?)

Wh-questions

Wh- questions begin with a question word (who, what, where, why, when, whose, which, how, etc.). We put the auxiliary or modal verb before the subject. Whose cat is this? It's Ted's. Where did you stay? At the Park Hotel.

When there is a preposition, it usually goes at the end of the question, though in formal English it can be put before the question word. Who does this car belong to? To whom does this car belong? (formal)

We use questions to ask for information or permission. We also use questions to make suggestions, requests, offers or invitations.

Asking for information: "Where did you meet her?" "At the gym."
 Asking for permission: "Can I borrow your pen?" "Yes, you can."

Making suggestions: "Shall we go out?" "Yes, all right."

Making requests:
 Making offers:
 "Could you help me, please?" "Yes, of course."
 "Would you like some cake?" "No, thanks."

Making invitations: "Would you like to come to my graduation party?" "Yes, I'd love to."

Form questions, then choose the appropriate speech situation: asking for information / permission or making suggestions / requests / offers / invitations.

1	(I use/your shampoo?) . Can J.use your shampoo, please? (permission)
2	(What time/the match start?)
3	(you/help your brother with his homework?)
4	(you like/come to Barbados with me?)

	(you like/tea or coffee?)
7	(I leave/early today?)

9	(you like/something to eat?)

Indirect Questions

- Indirect questions are used when we ask for information politely. They are introduced with
 Do you know...?, Can / Could you tell me ...?, Have you any idea ...? + question word / if or whether. Do you know where Peter is? Could you tell me how much these trousers cost? Have you any idea what time Sue will be back? Do you know if / whether she's coming to the party?
- The word order of indirect questions is the same as in statements (subject + verb). Can you tell me where you bought it? (NOT: Can you tell me where did you buy it?) Can you tell me what time it is? (NOT: Can you tell me what time is it?)
- The auxiliary verb do is not used in Indirect questions: How long does the journey take?
 Do you know how long the journey takes? What time did he leave? → Can you tell me what time he left?

Question Tags

- Question tags are short questions which we add at the end of a statement. We use them to ask for confirmation of or agreement with our statement. It's hot today, isn't it?
- Question tags are formed with an auxiliary or modal verb and an appropriate pronoun. They take the same auxiliary or modal verb as in the statement if there is one, otherwise they take do / does (Present Simple) or did (Past Simple). She was working at home, wasn't she? He left late, didn't he?
- A positive statement is followed by a negative question tag whereas a negative statement is followed by a positive question tag. She plays tennis well, doesn't she? He hasn't come yet, has he? He's always late, isn't he? She is never late, is she?
- Everyone / someone / anyone / no one form their question tags with an auxiliary or modal verb + they. Somebody should help her, shouldn't they?
- Question tags can be said with a rising intonation (when we are not sure and we expect an answer) or a falling intonation (when we don't expect an answer).

He works in a bank, doesn't he? (not sure) She looks tired, doesn't she? (sure)

Study the following question tags:

"I am" "aren't I?" "I used to" "didn't I?" "will/won't you?" Imperative "Let's" "shall we?" "will/won't you?" "Let me/him", etc. "Don't" "will you?" "I have" (= possess) "haven't I?" "I have" (used idiomatically) "don't I?" "There is/are" "isn't/aren't there?" "This/That is" "isn't it?"

I am older than you, aren't I?
They used to work here, didn't they?
Please help me, will/won't you?
Let's play tennis, shall we?
Let him buy it, will/won't you?
Don't do that again, will you?
She has your book, hasn't she?
She had an operation yesterday, didn't she?
There are some seats left, aren't there?
That pen is Mary's, isn't it?

8 Underline the correct item.

- 1 Carol has a car, doesn't she / hasn't she?
- 2 She used to play tennis, didn't she / wasn't she?
- 3 Let her do it, aren't you / won't you?
- 4 Peter isn't going to be late, isn't he / is he?
- 5 Let's sit down for dinner, will you / shall we?
- 6 Open the window, won't you / don't you?

9 Read the situations and write sentences with questions tags. In each situation, you are asking the person to agree with you.

1	You and your friend have just come from a concert	You really	enjoyed the	music.	What d	o you	say	to your friend? (fantastic)

The concert .was fantastic, wasn't it?

There is a new film playing at the cinema and you fancy going. You want your friend to come with you. What do you say to your friend? (go/cinema)

- 3 You are studying in your room. Your little brother is making too much noise and you can't concentrate. What do you say to him? (quiet)
- 4 You want to go shopping with your sister. She is still doing her homework. What do you say to her? (not/finish/homework)

You

10 Add the question tags then read them with a rising or falling intonation.

Sure	not Sure
1		1 She's late today, isn't she

	1	4 Stop laughing,
